Impresa Pizzarotti formally requests its business partners and suppliers to align themselves with the principles expressed in this Policy.

1.1 Quality Policy

The Impresa Pizzarotti mission is to provide complex works, excellent services, and products through sustainable and innovative processes, using the best construction methods and technologies that guarantee, within the time limits set by the contracts, a high-quality result.

Impresa Pizzarotti has adopted an adequate and effective Quality Management System, aimed at the continuous improvement of performance and sustainability through careful risk management in the construction processes of the works and the provision of services.

Compliance with mandatory requirements must be guaranteed by:

- ◆ the guarantee of respect and compliance with all mandatory requirements (laws, standards, contractual obligations, regulations, directives, and mandatory prescriptions in general at a local, national, European, and international level);
- ◆ the implementation of an effective and efficient Quality Management System;
- ◆ the extended approach to "Risk Management" in order to anticipate and minimize the effects of technical and economic-financial risks and to enhance the opportunities for improving competitiveness;

- ◆ the continuous search for the satisfaction of the Client's expectations and all interested parties;
- ◆ the extended and continuous control of the entire production process through accurate and detailed planning and the implementation of the best quality assurance and verification techniques;
- ◆ research and development of innovative technologies to optimize the quality of products and processes;
- ◆ the use of adequate and qualified resources to develop, maintain and disseminate the culture of quality in the company organization.

1.2 Environmental Policy

Environmental protection is a priority for Impresa Pizzarotti & C. S.p.A. which pursues the objectives of "zero environmental incidents" and "zero pollution".

The mission of Impresa Pizzarotti is to safeguard the environment, through the continuous analysis of the significant aspects to prevent possible impacts and using raw materials in a rational and sustainable way, favoring, where possible, recovery and/or recycling, encouraging the development and use of innovative technologies both in the design phases and in the construction phases of the works.

Impresa Pizzarotti has adopted an Environmental Management System which is a guide for the continuous improvement of environmental performance and the development of sustainability.

The environmental commitment of Impresa Pizzarotti & C. S.p.A. manifests itself through:

- ◆ the guarantee of respect and compliance with all mandatory requirements (laws, standards, contractual obligations, regulations, directives, and mandatory prescriptions in general at a local, national, European, and international level);
- ◆ the availability of adequate resources to guarantee the effective implementation of the Environmental Management System;
- ◆ the prevention of local pollution, working on the direct and indirect impacts that can be controlled and / or influenced by the typical operations of its production processes and applying an extended approach to "Risk Management";
- ◆ the mitigation of negative impacts on surrounding communities;
- ◆ the containment and constant reduction of the consumption of water resources and raw materials;
- ◆ the containment and reduction of waste production through recovery and recycling processes;
- ◆ the containment and reduction of energy consumption in order to minimize greenhouse gas emissions;
- ◆ the creation of works whose use is not dangerous for the health and safety of end users and all interested parties;
- ◆ the creation of works that have the highest possible rate of recyclability at the end of their life;
- ◆ the application of the most modern and appropriate technical and organizational measures to protect and preserve ecosystems and biodiversity;
- ◆ the management and reduction of hazardous chemicals;

- ◆ continuous training of personnel in order to increase environmental awareness and consequently prevent accidents and potential negative impacts.

1.3 Occupational Health and Safety Policy

The health and safety of workers are fundamental for Impresa Pizzarotti which pursues the objectives of "damage zero" and "zero incidents".

Impresa Pizzarotti has adopted a rigorous, adequate, and effective Health and Safety Management System aimed at constantly improving performance and seeking sustainability through the implementation of an extended approach to "Risk Management".

The commitment of the Company to guarantee the health and safety of all personnel is manifested through:

- ◆ the guarantee of respect and compliance with all mandatory requirements (laws, standards, contractual obligations, regulations, directives, and mandatory prescriptions in general at a local, national, European, and international level);
- ◆ the promotion of a culture of safety, placing preventive measures before protective measures;
- ◆ the creation and maintenance of healthy and safe working conditions in the context of a work environment characterized by the maximum technologically feasible safety, meaning the maximum technical, organizational, and procedural safety;
- ◆ the guarantee of constant and punctual health surveillance in agreement with the competent physician;
- ◆ the contrast with all available means, albeit in compliance with the laws and mandatory regulations, of any behavioral excess, with particular attention to smoking and the use of narcotic and alcoholic substances, in the workplace or while carrying out responsibilities and activities of personnel;
- ◆ detailed analysis of production activities to identify risks and prevent events;
- ◆ the implementation of all measures capable of minimizing the probability of accidents, injuries, and occupational diseases;
- ◆ the use of innovative technologies and production processes, adequate and qualified resources;
- ◆ the involvement and consultation of workers and, where established, of Workers' Representatives, on matters relating to Health and Safety, making them active participants;
- ◆ continuous training of workers and the implementation of a constantly updated information, instructions, and supervision system to integrate a positive health and safety culture;

Impresa Pizzarotti guarantees and encourages consultation and participation of the Workers and, where established, of the Workers' Representatives, on matters relating to Health and Safety;

1.4 Sustainability Policy

The mission of the Company is to build excellence in a sustainable and innovative way.

Conducting its industrial activity, the Company acts in full respect of human rights, in accordance with the principles:

- ◆ of the UN Universal Declaration of Human Rights;
- ◆ of the United Nations Global Compact;
- ◆ of the Charter of Fundamental Rights of the European Union;
- ◆ as well as in compliance with any specific legislation in force in the countries in which it operates.

The Company works with its Clients, partners, and suppliers to create works/products with the requisites suitable for creating social and economic value for the communities in which it operates.

The commitment to this goal is made in the most responsible way possible towards the environment and society and is manifested through:

- ◆ the guarantee of respect and compliance with all mandatory requirements (laws, standards, contractual obligations, regulations, directives, and mandatory prescriptions in general at a local, national, European, and international level);
- ◆ full respect for the human rights of all employees and other parties involved in the operations;
- ◆ maximum interaction with all stakeholders and proactive listening to the legitimate expectations of local communities so that the works created leave a positive legacy following their completion;
- ◆ the utmost effort to ensure health, well-being, and safety at the highest standards in all workplaces and to promote the culture of "damage zero", as indicated in the Health and Safety policy;
- ◆ the continuous evaluation and promotion of equality and inclusion in the workforce;
- ◆ "zero" tolerance towards discrimination or inappropriate behavior;
- ◆ the constant search for the development of personnel skills;
- ◆ the adoption of eco-design principles in projects.

1.5 Sustainable Procurement Policy

The mission of the Company is to build excellence through a sustainable and ethical supply chain.

The commitment of Impresa Pizzarotti to provide sustainable results, through the works and products it produces, extends beyond the boundaries of operations aimed at the supply of materials, works or services provided by third parties.

The Company, in fact, respects the Human Rights of Employees and Local Communities and is committed to promoting these principles with its Suppliers/ Subcontractors identifying and managing environmental impacts, ethical, social and economic within the supply chain and by committing to purchasing sustainable, ethical and responsible materials, goods and services, in accordance with ISO 20400.

To this end, in collaboration with designers and supply chain partners, the Company undertakes to:

- ◆ to avoid a negative social, ethical and environmental impact in the supply chain;
- ◆ reduce the environmental impact of operating activities by purchasing products that meet recognized environmental standards.

The sustainable procurement practices in which the Pizzarotti S.p.A. Company is engaged at all levels of its organization are:

- ◆ ethical sourcing through the formal request for acceptance and signature by suppliers of ethical and anti-corruption principles;
- ◆ the efficiency of resources, the minimization of waste and the preferential use of materials, products and services that favor the benefits of the circular economy;
- ◆ collaboration with suppliers who actively manage their impact on habitats and the environment in order to promote the conservation of biodiversity and environmental protection;
- ◆ the application, where possible, of innovative eco-design principles to projects with the aim of minimizing the impacts associated with the procurement of materials and energy;
- ◆ purchase, where possible, of goods and use of services in line with international principles aimed at promoting and protecting Human Rights recognized by the principles of the United Nations Global Compact (defined by the Universal Declaration of Human Rights) and the International Labor Organization (ILO) Declaration on Fundamental Principles and Rights at Work for Anyone Engaged in the Corporate Supply Chain;
- ◆ inclusion of sustainability criteria as part of the evaluation process of suppliers and subcontractors;
- ◆ implementation of environmental and safety legislation, including international obligations on climate change and sustainable development such as reducing CO2 emissions and protecting biodiversity;
- ◆ prioritize, where possible, Suppliers/Subcontractors who have incorporated ethical and sustainable practices within their organization and pursue them within their supply chain;
- ◆ promoting a level of sustainability awareness among supply chain partners and encouraging them to adopt sustainable practices;
- ◆ purchase, where possible, goods and services that reflect appropriate and recognized environmental specifications or standards in order to pursue the continuous improvement of internal procurement practices;
- ◆ purchase, where possible, only products from sustainable sources;
- ◆ to promote the replacement of products potentially harmful to the environment when a less harmful alternative is available;
- ◆ to avoid the use of products potentially harmful to the environment when a less harmful alternative is available;
- ◆ use, where possible, products that have a minimal impact on the environment, both local and global. The factors taken into account will include the sustainability of production, transport, the energy used, the consumption of raw materials, the production of waste and the percentage of recycled content or a high recyclability factor;
- ◆ to reduce, where possible, the impact of deliveries and to facilitate the supply of materials, products and services from local markets;
- ◆ where possible, consume and buy less by identifying and eliminating wasteful practices in internal and external operations over which the Company has influence.

In particular, Suppliers/Subcontractors are required to include the Sustainability criteria as part of the procurement process, and in general:

- ◆ prefer purchases of RoHS compliant Electrical and Electronic Equipment in order to limit the presence in the final products of lead, mercury, cadmium, hexavalent chromium, polybrominated biphenyls and polybrominated diphenyl ethers;
